

We're Un-Paving Paradise...

Do you want to be a part of creating the new park at Linwood & Athens Avenue
in Ardmore?

Join us for a special public meeting!

Tuesday, February 26th
7 - 9 p.m.

Household of Faith Deliverance Worship Center 130 East Athens Avenue, Ardmore

Ward 8 Commissioner Jane Dellheim will host this important meeting, which will seek creative possibilities from the public for this parking lot.

The consulting team led by Kim Douglas of Studio Gaea & Sara Pevaroff Schuh of Salt Design Studio will present preliminary observations for the new park and receive comments from those who attend.

Light refreshments will be served.

Input from the public will be an important part of this exciting planning process. We would like to hear from you!
RSVP to jdellheim@verizon.net

For more information contact Lower Merion Parks & Recreation:
(610) 645-6220 or recreation@lowermerion.org

...to Put Up a Park!